CENTURY SURETY COMPANY,

Plaintiff,

v.

DENNIS PRINCE, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:16-cv-02465-JCM-PAL

ORDER

(Mot Exceed Page Limits – ECF No. 16)

Before the court is Defendant Dennis Prince's Motion to Exceed Page Limits Pursuant to LR 7-3 (ECF No. 16). Defendant Prince requests an additional 30 pages beyond that allowed by LR 7-4 to support his motion to dismiss stating "the immense factual and procedural history leading up to the instant matter" and "Defendant's position on Plaintiff's causes of action" make a much longer brief necessary because "[a]ny effort to condense arguments...will unreasonably dilute the arguments and prejudice Defendant." Prince filed a 57-page motion to dismiss with 728 pages of supporting exhibits on December 5, 2016. By contrast, co-defendant Esparza filed a 7-page motion to dismiss. LR 7-4(b) allows 24 pages. The court has preliminarily reviewed the 57-page motion to dismiss and is not at all satisfied that good cause exists for the additional pages requested.

IT IS ORDERED that Defendant Dennis Prince's Motion to Exceed Page Limits Pursuant to LR 7-3 (ECF No. 16) is DENIED. Defendant Prince shall have until December 16, 2016, to refile his motion to dismiss within the page limitation allowed by LR 7-4(b).

DATED this 13th day of December, 2016.
